

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEGV LAW Welcomes Rodrigo E. Thuollier as International Associate

Miami, Florida – December 8, 2025. GV LAW is pleased to announce that Rodrigo E. Thuollier has joined the firm as an International Associate, strengthening the firm’s cross-border corporate, compliance, and governance capabilities. Mr. Thuollier brings extensive experience supporting multinational operations across Latin America, Europe, and Asia, with a background spanning corporate governance, internal controls, regulatory compliance, and high-volume document management.

Mr. Thuollier’s career reflects a disciplined and detail-oriented approach to organizational compliance, regulatory readiness, and cross-functional coordination. He has supported legal and compliance teams in complex operational environments, managing workflows involving internal audits, risk matrices, policy implementation, training programs, and global reporting structures. His work has contributed to the strengthening of prevention models, fraud-mitigation systems, document standardization, and governance frameworks for large, multinational enterprises.

Mr. Thuollier previously served in compliance roles within the Latin American division of a global digital transformation and technology group. In these positions, he developed and maintained risk-assessment models, conducted internal audits, analyzed regulatory developments, and delivered compliance training to teams distributed across Latin America and Asia. His responsibilities included implementing internal control mechanisms, supporting anti-bribery and crime-prevention initiatives, and coordinating operational committees relating to workplace safety and regulatory adherence.

Before entering the compliance field, Mr. Thuollier worked within the legal department of a national financial markets and infrastructure group, where he assisted with the drafting of corporate governance instruments, commercial contracts, NDAs, bylaws, board regulations, and regulatory reports. He supported attorneys on matters involving corporate housekeeping, judicial process monitoring, and the coordination of formal corporate documentation. His early legal work provided a strong foundation in commercial contracting, corporate administration, and institutional governance procedures.

For more than a decade, Mr. Thuollier has also served as a leadership mentor and instructor with an educational organization dedicated to developing youth leadership, civic engagement, and values-based training. His work includes mentoring secondary-school students, guiding congressional-model programs, and delivering training on leadership principles and personal development.
